Randwick C Of E Primary School Offer of Early Help

Randwick C of E Primary are part of the Early Help Partnership. Early help is about children, young people and families getting the right help at the right time.

All children receive Universal Services however some children will need extra support in order to be healthy, safe and to achieve their full potential.

Early help is about identifying the right support for children, young people and their families as soon as problems emerge. It is also about identifying support at all stages of a child's life; pre-birth, childhood and or adolescence. The purpose of early help is to prevent issues and problems becoming serious and harmful to the child and their respective family and community.

We, at Randwick, recognise the importance of identifying and providing Early Help to parents, carers or family members who are concerned about their child.

For parents, the school is easily accessible which creates a convenient starting point if anyone has concerns to share about their child. We work alongside and in partnership with other agencies including the Advisory Teaching Service, Educational Psychologist, School Nursing Team, CYPS, Charities, Young Carer's, Families First Plus, Virtual School Adult Education and Social Care.

Our School operates an open-door policy where parents and carers are encouraged to approach the school at the earliest opportunity for support and advice.

All staff are available in a pastoral capacity should parents/carers have a concern, however they can contact the Behaviour and Pastoral lead Mrs Jo Donaldson.

Parents can either talk directly to their child's Class Teacher or seek advice by requesting a telephone call or appointment with the Headteacher and Safeguarding Lead, Kathryn Wilson.

Appointments can be made by contacting the School Office: 01453-762773.

When children and families need additional support, a timely, coordinated and multi-agency approach is usually best. The school can organise meetings which are sometimes referred to as a Team Around the Family meeting (TAF).

Central to this approach would be an early assessment into a family's circumstances lead by the Headteacher and SENCo. They work closely with the child, family and other professionals to deliver and co-ordinate support.

Graduated early help and support involves; identification; assessment; planning; providing services and reviewing the needs of the child. The SENCo and Headteacher will work closely together to ensure that school meets the needs of all pupils' particularly young people and their families with additional needs, including those with SEN and Disabilities.

The implementation of the My Plan, My Plan+ and the Education, Health and Care Plan will provide a holistic approach to support families and young people with additional needs.

The PSHE curriculum covers all aspects of keeping young people safe, healthy, resilient and aware of the world around them so they can make informed decisions. Where pupils have specific issues regarding their well-being, school will design an individual programme to meet their needs. A tailored programme is delivered to each year group to look at issues around mental health, emotional well-being, healthy relationships and body image to name a few.

E-Safety - On-Line safety is taught through computing and across the broader curriculum. E-safety is a key part of the ongoing curriculum.

Bullying - Randwick is committed to tackling bullying. We want to know immediately if there are any issues with bullying at school so that they can be addressed.

Our school can also offer workshops and bespoke lessons on anti-bullying for anyone who has suffered bullying to encourage behaviours that might avert it in the future (e.g. assertiveness) or to boost self-esteem. We have a series of teaching resources produced by the Gloucestershire Healthy Living and Learning Team (www.ghll.org.uk) to support this. Education about bullying is an integral part of our PSHE programme.

Preventing Radicalisation: Randwick teaches traditional British values through our school curriculum. Democracy, rule of law, respect for others, liberty, tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs and promotion of 'Britishness'.

Pupils need to understand that radicalisation can be a form of grooming online and understand the notion of propaganda. They need to be taught to be discerning about what they read on the internet as the dangers of speaking to strangers online.

<https://www.ltai.info> is an excellent website for parents.

While it remains very rare for school age children to become involved in extremist activity to the point of committing criminal acts, young people can be exposed to extremist influences or prejudiced views, including via the internet, from an early age. As with other forms of criminality or risk of harm, early intervention is always preferable.

Universal source of help for all families in Gloucestershire: Gloucestershire Family Information Service (FIS)	Gloucestershire Family Information Service (FIS) advisors give impartial information on childcare, finances, parenting and education. FIS are a useful source of information for parents and professionals. They support families, children and young people aged 0-19 years of age (25 for young people with additional needs) and professionals working with these families. They can help link parents up with other organisations that might be able to help or provide the information themselves e.g. parents could ask them about holiday clubs for your children across Gloucestershire. Contact the FIS by emailing: familyinfo@gloucestershire.gov.uk Or telephone: (0800) 542 0202 or (01452) 427362. FIS also have a website which has a wealth of information to support many issues such as childcare and support for children with disabilities. http://www.glosfamiliesdirectory.org.uk/kb5/gloucs/glosfamilies/home.page For information for Children and Young People with Special Educational Needs and disabilities (SEND) go to the SEN and disability 'local offer' website : www.glosfamilies.org.uk/localoffer

Online survey completed every 2 years in Y4 and Y6.
Home-school support	All of our Early Help is offered in partnership with parents / carers. At the start of each child's time at Randwick School our EYFS staff come to visit them and their parents at home so that worries or concerns can be shared with the school in a relaxed and familiar environment. We have an open-door policy and welcome parents into the school for open afternoons and information evenings. Parents are encouraged to come into school to share concerns at their earliest convenience with either staff or the Head Teacher.
Online Safety	Online safety is a key part of the ongoing curriculum. This is carefully planned into regular sessions through the year but also addressed if there is an incident that needs discussing. The Head teacher and staff regularly use the school safety advisor to ask for advice and support on topics such as sexting and parental roles in supporting and developing e-safety. http://www.esafety-adviser.com There is a regular link to online e-safety magazine shared with parents on the newsletter. Children in Year 4 attend 'In The Net' a production by GSCB to raise awareness and develop healthy responses to e-safety. Helpful websites for teaching staff and parents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -PACE (parents against child exploitation) UK is a useful website to engage parents with e-safety issues. www.paceuk.info/ - www.thinkuknow.co.uk/parents (excellent resources) - http://educateagainsthate.com - www.internetmatters.org - https://ico.org.uk We also use the NATIONAL ONLINE SAFETY forum as a way of sharing information with parents.
